"A 1930 movie palace that has been restored into a sparking icon of downtown Tucson." - Tucson Citizen

"We love [the Fox Tucson Theatre]. There's no question from an audience experience it's extraordinary." - Lender Kearns, Broadway in Tucson General Manager

"For me it was love at first sight. I will never forget the first time I walked into the theatre after the renovation was complete. Even now, after seeing dozens of movies, concerts, and community events there, I still get goosebumps when I walk in." - Ellie Patterson, Past Board President

"Treat your grandchildren to a taste of history - and an incredible show - at the Fox Tucson Theatre. Located in the heart of downtown Tucson, the 1,200-seat theater is the only known example of a Southwestern Art-Deco movie palace." - grandparents.com

"I'm a huge fan of the Fox Tucson Theatre. Without question the Fox is one of Tucson's most treasured assets. In fact, it's hard to imagine Tucson without the Fox!" - Mayor Bob Walkup

"The Fox Tucson Theatre is one of a dwindling number of historic theatres still in existence in the United States and is the finest example of its kind in Arizona." - TucsonAttractions.com

"This is one of the most amazing venues I have ever played in. The Fox is awesome!!" - Rusty Young, from the band POCO
